TO

K. R. Srecnivasiengar, Esquire, M. A.,
Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Genl. and Rev. Departments.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Arya Dharma Bodhini Sabha at Bangalore was started in 1901-2 with the late Mr. P. N. Purnaiya as President and subscriptions and donations received from time to time from members and sympathisers including Messrs. T. Ananda Rao, K. V. Nanjundiah and others were duly invested in the Bangalore - District Treasury Savings Bank after meeting the expenses pertaining to the lectures delivered from time to time.

2. It is ~~experience~~ within the experience of the public of - - Bangalore how the Arya Dharma Bodhini Sabha has been the means of bringing together the best modern intellects and most learned - Pandits in ancient lore, of establishing between the two apparently divergent classes of learning a bond of mutual good understanding and harmony, and above all of disseminiating the fruits of their learning and erudition among the younger generation. Learned - - Pandits who were ~~in~~vited to lecture in the Sabha were given decent honoraria which was also one of the ways in which men of learning but of sparing means were attracted to give its benefit to the ris-ing generation.

3. In consideration of the good work that the Sabha has been doing, the Government were pleased to sanction a grant-in-aid of - Rs. 225/- per annum from the Muzrai Funds to meet the expenses connected therewith. This sum however is not sufficient to cover the expenses if a regular course of lectures is arranged by the Sabha.

4. At a General Meeting of the Members of the Sabha held on the 27th March 1912. under the Presidentship of Mr. V. P. Madhava Rao C. I. E., late Dewan of Mysore, Mr. Karpur Sreenivasa Rao was unanunanimously elected President in place of the late lamented - - Mr. Purnaiya, and it was resolved that in order to secure sufficient funds for a regular course of lectures the sum of Rs 3,600/- now standing at the credit of the Sabha in the District Treasury - - Savings Bank, be deposited as an endowment under the favourable - rate of interest in pursuance of Government Order No. Fl. 473-503/ G. F. 15-09-2 dated 15th July 1909.

Three thousand Six hundred only. Rs

5. I am, therefore, to request that you may be so good as to move the Government of His Highness the Maharaja to accept for the present the amount of Rs. 3,600/- as a charitable endowment under the orders above cited, the half-yearly interest being kindly made payable to me as Honorary Secretary to the Sabha.

Three thousand Six hundred Rs only.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Honorary Secretary.
